

Growth of Manufacturing — Industries

Early industries in Michigan in the mid to late 19th century include iron works (stoves, farm implements, railroad cars, etc.) furniture, cereal, pharmaceuticals, paper and others. Many towns had their own cigar factory and brewery. Their stories are told in this gallery.